THE

Common JUNIPERTREE.

NAMES.

A. ς ς
G. Αρκευθος.
L. Juniperus.
I. Ginepro.
G. Wacholder Baum.
F. Genevrier.
S. Enebro.
D. Genever = boom.

PLACE.

It Grows on Heaths & Mountains.

DESCRIPTION.

Juniper with us makes but a Bush, but in Colder C of some size. The Wood is a Yellowish white, coverd the Young Shoots 1. are angular. The Leaves 2. are of Green with a Bluish Cast as if powderd, having Sharp three at a Joint, and the next cropsing them. with a small Stripe in the Middle between Blue and white, from the B
3. grow small oval Clusterd things like Cones, composd of ma parts which opening 4. Discharge a small, round, whitish Yel Dust. This Plant bears Berries that are near two Years upon soms, and at the same time has green and ripe Fruit, which a a blue Bloom over them as Plumbs, on the Tree at one time. 5.
Two Seeds, 3* a Cone, 7. a Leaf. 8. one cut Transversly, 3*. 4.5.6.6

VIRTUES.

The Berries are Diuretic & used to expel Wind, against G
This Tree produces the Gum Sardarach.

T. Sheldrake del.

TIMOTHY SHELDRAKE Botanicum Medicinale (An Herbal of Medicinial Plants) LONDON, 1759 CHICAGO BOTANIC GARDE